

Proclamation

WHEREAS, established on June 20, 1935, Fujitsu Limited began operations using pioneering technology to contribute to the development of Japan's public telecommunications infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, Fujitsu Limited's innovative spirit has grown the company into a global technology company with total assets equivalent to more than $23.3 billion as of March 31, 2025; and

WHEREAS, the company was also an early pioneer in corporate social responsibility programs, and in Hawai'i established the Japan-America Institute of Management Science (JAIMS), a non-profit corporation founded by Fujitsu Limited in 1972 to provide postgraduate level education in Hawai'i, where it built and maintained a two-story building in Hawai'i Kai and landscaped the campus with a monkey pod tree grove at a cost of more than $52 million dollars over a period of 53 years; and

WHEREAS, the urban canopy created by Fujitsu Limited on the JAIMS campus is a prime example of a mature community forest that Hawai'i would like to proliferate, consistent with the Governor's recent Proclamation declaring 2025 to be the "Year of Our Community Forests;" and

WHEREAS, the JAIMS program has left a legacy of international understanding and cooperation throughout the Asia-Pacific region by seeding cross-cultural education and communication among more than 23,000 participants from 55 countries; and

WHEREAS, JAIMS contributed toward Hawai'i's educational tourism industry that was annually valued at $2 billion in 1998; and

WHEREAS, due to Fujitsu Limited's land lease with the Bishop Estate that expires in 2028, the company is in the process of dissolving and distributing JAIMS's assets, including a $477,000 contribution to the University of Hawai'i's College of Social Services to create an endowment fund that will continue educational and leadership development efforts in the Asia-Pacific region;

NOW, THEREFORE I, Josh Green, M.D., Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim June 20, 2025 as the
